Hospital Board Talks Plans for New Addition

Awaiting Sale of Bonds Before Any Final Action

Further discussion of details of procedure on plans for construction of the proposed new wing to Fayette County Memorial Hospital occupied the attention of the institution's board of trustees at their regular meeting Monday night.

Otherwise only routine matters were brought up, such as approval of bills.

Because of the fact that no action can be taken by the board until after the $125,000 in county bonds have been sold, no final decisions were made at this meeting except to agree to push the entire plan as rapidly as possible.

Bids are to be received at the Court House next Friday, Jan. 11, up until 12 o'clock (noon). The county commissioners will receive the bids at the county auditor's office, and if one or more satisfactory bids are made, it is probable that the commissioners will take the necessary steps to conclude the sale of bonds at once.

In such case, the funds would be available as soon as the purchaser concludes the sale by paying over the money for the bonds when delivered. After that, the commissioners and hospital board will be ready to push the project as rapidly as possible.

CHIEF OF STAFF Dr. Hugh W. Payton was present and entered into discussion with the hospital board as to suggestions on how the new wing will be divided as to rooms and other facilities. There was general agreement that the main objective was to plan for (Please turn to Page Two)

Fire Is Hemmed in By Big Snow Banks Made by Bulldozer

SEPT ILES, Que., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Snow-piling bulldozers Monday night saved this jump-off to Canada's huge Ungava iron ore deposits from destruction by a raging fire.

With water supplies frozen over by 15-below-zero weather, the bulldozers smashed inflammable build-ups from the fire's path and threw up snowbanks to twice starve out the flames.

Damage, though estimated at more than $1 million, was confined to a group of business buildings in the heart of the little port town of 3,600 persons. First reports said there were no casualties and only one family was homeless.

The fire broke out in a huge garage, then spread to the town hall and a new department store. The bulldozing firefighters thought they had it under control just before midnight, but later oxygen tanks in a steel warehouse exploded and flames shot 100 feet in the air. The bulldozers went into action again. The town was reported out of danger again early Tuesday.

Republican Named To Head RFC on 'No Politics' Basis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—An active Republican prepared Tuesday to become boss of the multi-million dollar Reconstruction Finance Corporation under an announced policy of loans "on a basis of business and merit—no politics."

Even as Harry A. McDonald, enunciated this policy, however, a move sprang up to launch a new Senate investigation of the huge scandal-ridden government lending agency.

Senator Maybank (D-SC), Senate Banking Committee chairman, announced he had ordered an inquiry into the resignation of W. Stuart Symington as RFC administrator.

He said Senate action on President Truman's nomination of McDonald to succeed Symington probably would be held up until after the inquiry. McDonald, now chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, is a close personal friend of Symington.

Killer's Relatives To Get Attorney

CLEVELAND, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Relatives in California have until Wednesday to provide a lawyer for George Ross, who is accused of killing Patrolman Forney Haas here Dec. 8. When he pleaded innocent Monday, Ross said he had asked relatives to get him a lawyer.

Judge Samuel H. Silbert said he would appoint two attorneys to defend him if Ross does not have a reply by Wednesday. Police say Ross previously admitted the shooting. The trial is set for Jan. 28.

Hearst Estate Value Is Set at $16,070,255

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A partial inventory lists assets of the estate of the late William Randolph Hearst at $16,070,255.

Largest item in the inventory, filed Monday, was $13.6 million in stocks of Hearst publishing companies. Next largest was $1,650,691 in antiques and art objects.

Quake in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 8.—(AP)—An earthquake of small intensity was felt in the San Diego area Monday night. There were no reports of damage.

Strange Wild Beast Shot in Ohio

CHARDON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Pathologists in Cleveland City hospital were attempting Tuesday to identify a strange wild beast described as "90 per cent chow dog but with a mane like a hyena's."

Fred Neubauer of Lake Kelso, Geauga County's professional fox hunter, flushed the animal out of a brush pile in Newbury Monday and shot it with a 22 rifle bullet.

Though in many respects the wild dog resembled a chow, R.K. Kula, taxidermist of Cleveland Museum of Natural History noted in particular the mane was not merely hair but an uprising of flesh and muscle.

New Members Sworn in

John Sagar Reelected Head of School Board

John Sagar was reelected Monday night the president of the Washington C. H. Board of Education, which begins the new year with three new members.

Sagar, the owner and manager of the Sagar Dairy, has served on the school board for two years.

Named as vice president was Walter Rettig, former principal of Washington C. H. High School.

Rettig, Alfred E. Weatherly and Frank Brown were given their oaths of office by Sagar before they held their organization meeting at Anderson's Drive In.

Unique Plan Is Set Up for Polio Drive

A unique porch light campaign to help raise funds for the March of Dimes will be held in Washington C. H. on Jan. 31.

Those persons who want to help with the campaign are requested to leave their porch lights on between 6 and 7 P. M. on that date.

They will serve as a beacon to guide volunteers who will make calls in behalf of the campaign.

Mrs. Charles Hurr, chairman of the mothers' committee, said: "We hope every porch light in Washington C. H. will burn that hour."

She called for volunteer workers to help with the porch light solicitation. They are asked to call the following persons:

Mrs. Robert Moats, Sunnyside district (32334); Mrs. Otis Core, Eastside, (27602); Mrs. N. C. Highfield, Cherry Hill (51491); Mrs. Warner Penrod, Rose Avenue (24411); Mrs. John Morehouse, Central (27041) or Mrs. Hurr (49002).

The campaign is also getting the support of the county's school children. Cards with slots to place coins in are being distributed to all the county grade school children. The youngsters will place their contributions in the cards and return them to their teachers.

The students in the four county high schools will also have a chance to make their contribution. Contribution cans are being placed in all of the schools so that the older students will have an opportunity to contribute to the campaign.

Cuyahoga Farmers Top Ohio Average

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Cuyahoga County farmers made more money per acre than other Ohio farmers in 1949, the Federal Census Bureau has reported.

The bureau said Cuyahoga farmers averaged $164.16 for each acre of ground, according to the 1950 census. Their farms were valued at an average of $47.08 per acre, compared with $38.39 five years ago.

The bureau ranked Lake, Lucas, Fulton and Hamilton Counties after Cuyahoga in that order in return per acre.

Other 1949 cash returns per acre in farm land included these counties: Auglaize $45.48, Putnam $46.64, Hardin $39.90, Van Wert $40.72, Hancock $41.04, Mercer $45.64, Allen $42.36, Paulding $29.99, Defiance $34.68, Williams $38.15, Clinton $47.41, Pickaway $40.62, Highland $31.12, Greene $47.44, Madison $44.60, Ross $26.29, Warren $38.58, Brown $26.46, Adams $18.85, Clermont $23.01, Athens $12.49, Fairfield $36.76, Perry $17.43 and Vinton $6.90.

(Fayette County was one of those for which figures were not immediately available.)

Truce Slowdown Laid to Soviet UN Maneuvers

Fighting in Korea Grows More Bitter; Casualties Increase

PARIS, Jan. 8.—(AP)—France's United Nations delegate, Jean Chauvel, Tuesday accused Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky of causing a slowdown in the Korean armistice negotiations.

The truce talks at Panmunjom "weren't going so badly until the initiative was taken by the Soviet delegate here," Chauvel told the 60-nation UN Political Committee.

Chauvel was attacking a Soviet resolution calling for a high level meeting of the Security Council to intervene in the armistice discussions. The Russian proposal also would dissolve the collective measures committee which has recommended a regional security plan backed by the West.

Vishinsky at once angrily replied that since the talks at the front have been going on without results for six months, they "must be expedited to a successful conclusion."

Vishinsky contended this could be done only by a "high level meeting of the most responsible persons in the world—except the chiefs of state, of course."

This was interpreted as a clear cut demand for the foreign ministers of the 11 Security Council countries to take over the talks.

Meanwhile in Munsan, the UN command rephrased its proposal for exchanging prisoners of war, but the Reds promptly turned it down.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby, Allied truce negotiator, said the UN plan was reworded to "eliminate any ground for technical opposition" by the Communists.

The Reds still objected. A second truce subcommittee argued nearly two hours over whether the Reds should be allowed to rebuild air fields during an armistice. Neither side changed its view.

Both committees scheduled new sessions for 9 p. m. Tuesday (EST) in Panmunjom.

In presenting the revised plan for exchanging prisoners of war, Libby said "this is in no sense a new proposal" but it had been rephrased to cover objections raised by the Reds. Changes included:

1. SPECIFIC provision that the UN Command would release all prisoners for voluntary repatriation after the Reds returned all prisoners (Please turn to Page Two)

Ohio GOP Chief Stands by Taft

COLUMBUS, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Ray C. Bliss, Ohio Republican state chairman, says Ohio supporters of Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) for the Republican presidential nomination would not change their position because of the possible candidacy of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. He said:

"Eisenhower's announcement is no great surprise, inasmuch as for some time it has been clear that finally he would indicate his availability. I do not believe that those already pledged to Sen. Taft will change their position. Our campaign for Sen. Taft will continue as originally planned."

Ex-GI from Cleveland Is To Get New Trial

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has set Feb. 15 for a rehearing of the case of a 22-year-old Cleveland youth convicted of killing two Italian black market thieves.

The youth, Thomas A. Gusik, was sentenced to life imprisonment by an Army court martial which found him guilty of killing two Italians in Trier, Italy. Gusik was accused of luring the Italians into a trap in 1947 when he was on Army guard duty.

Two Triplets Arrive Week after the First

WEST RUNTON, Eng., Jan. 8.—(AP)—A 24-year-old mother gave birth to the second and third members of a set of triplets Sunday—one week after the first arrived.

The baby born in 1951 was a boy weighing four pounds. Those who made their debut in 1952 were another boy, weighing four pounds, five ounces, and a girl, weighing three pounds, eleven ounces. They were born within ten minutes of one another.

Atlantic City Hit By Expensive Fire

ATLANTIC CITY, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Fire officials estimate damage from the spectacular blaze which rampaged out of control for more than four hours through two blocks of this resort city might go as high as $4 million.

Flames, whipped into a frenzy by a 40-mile-an-hour wind, destroyed hotels, rooming houses, shops and a theater on or near the famous Boardwalk Monday.

Eighteen persons, including firemen, policemen, were slightly injured during the fire.

Strange Wild Beast Shot in Ohio

Chardon, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Pathologists in Cleveland City hospital were attempting Tuesday to identify a strange wild beast described as "90 per cent chow dog but with a mane like a hyena's."

Fred Neubauer of Lake Kelso, Geauga County's professional fox hunter, flushed the animal out of a brush pile in Newbury Monday and shot it with a 22 rifle bullet.

Though in many respects the wild dog resembled a chow, R.K. Kula, taxidermist of Cleveland Museum of Natural History noted in particular the mane was not merely hair but an uprising of flesh and muscle.

State Game Warden Forrest Tittle of Chardon declared: "I never saw anything like it."

It may be, Kula said, that the animal was a second or third generation wild dog on the way to reverting to an original type that no longer exists. He said he had never seen a similar specimen.

The dog was a gray female, 42 inches long, weighing about 40 pounds. The inner mouth was dark, like that of a chow. The claws were long and sharp. Estimated age: five or six years.

Only last week, Otto Stetina of Newbury said he tracked what he thought was a "mountain lion." However, Kula said this was not the same animal. The BATTLE AGAINST THE SEA ALMOST WON—As the heavily-listing American freighter, Flying Enterprise (top), moves at a steady 4-1/2 land miles an hour toward England, her heroic captain, Henrik Kurt Carlsen is well within 200 miles of winning his gamble with the stormy Atlantic which kept him alone aboard his battered vessel for almost a week. Big Issues Sidetracked

Gripe about Bean Soup Sparks Congress Opener

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A bean soup controversy simmered menacingly Tuesday as the U. S. Congress reconvened after an 11-week adjournment.

Politics, defense spending, Universal Military Training and foreign aid were supposed to be out as the dominant issues, but this being election year and all, a major gripe was concerning a bowl of lowly bean soup.

Of course, the big issues will come to the fore in short order... but the "important" matter as the noon gavel sounded was bean soup. The size of the servings of this standard congressional mainstay in the House of Representatives restaurant has been cut down drastically. Two bits formerly brought a brimming bowl of the nourishing stuff. A boy's size oatmeal bowl would be a roomy fit for an order today.

Rep. Tom Steed, a Democratic bean soup gourmet from Shawnee, Okla., uncovered this newest evidence of inflation almost immediately upon his return to the capital.

HIS REACTION was resigned but embittered.

Stirring a 10-cent cup of coffee, which was only a nickel when he went back to Oklahoma last October, Steed invited his colleagues, the press and the world at large to consider Capitol bean soup in historical perspective.

"This pottage," he declared,

Many of you remember those white, wooden crosses which the state highway department was required to erect along the roadside at the scene of every fatal traffic accident a number of years ago.

That was back under Governor "Ic Donahy's administration, as I recall.

The crosses were some three feet in height, with the cross arms 14 to 16 inches across. Being painted white, they really stuck out like a sore toe.

After several years of adding to the crosses as fatalities occurred, the roadways in the state were dotted by thousands of the markers.

In Fayette County, dozens of the crosses were planted along the highways.

In one instance, at a railroad crossing in Vinton County, as I recall the place, there were 10 crosses planted along the road, indicating the terrible toll of human lives taken at a single railroad crossing.

Most of the grade crossings had one or more of the crosses showing. It was noticeable that most of the crosses were along straight-of-ways on the main highway.

Gov. Donahy's successor ordered the state highway department to remove all of the crosses in the state, due to the fact that they were beginning to get on the nerves of motorists generally, and were a constant reminder of death.

Crippled Ship Nearing Port At Slow Pace

LONDON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Capt. Kurt (Stay Put) Carlsen climbed the slanting deck of the Flying Enterprise Tuesday and shouted out jubilantly: "Everything is OK!"

His hurricane-wracked freighter had begun veering erratically at the end of its two ropes Tuesday morning forcing a slowdown, but the Rescue Tug Turmoil steamed on at a walking pace. The safety of Falmouth, England, harbor was only 80 miles—less than a day—away.

"There is nothing to worry about," Carlsen shouted to the Associated Press Tug Englishman riding along 10 to 15 yards away from the crippled freighter.

Carlsen wore a thick beard. He was dressed in blue denim trousers and a Navy-type pea coat with a now shapeless khaki hat—like a story-book picture of a merchant seaman.

He looked surprisingly fit. Ten days have elapsed since the worst Atlantic storm in 50 years wrecked his 6,711-ton ship, forced him to evacuate 40 crew members and waiting rescue vessels, and started him on his valiant effort to keep the Enterprise from becoming a prize of the sea.

An accused bank robber, John Billett, 24, charged with a $20,000 holdup during a snow-storm Monday, was named by officers as the youth's captor.

Deputy Sheriff T. A. Callicott said Billett later admitted kidnapping Richard Evan (Ricky) Henricksen, who had been missing since last October. Billett led officers to the three-room house where the 14-year-old boy was held.

The lad had bruises over much of his body, but otherwise was in fair physical condition. Callicott said the boy told of numerous sexual indignities at the hands of his captor.

Billett said he was responsible for the abduction of the Henricksen boy and led officers to the hideout where the lad was held. They entered (Please turn to Page Two)

Turnpike Steel Sought by Lausche

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio is to confer Tuesday with federal officials on allocation of steel for Ohio's proposed turnpike.

Construction of the proposed $300 million toll road across Northern Ohio cannot begin until the steel is allocated by the National Production Authority.

Lausche said he wants the steel for use during the third quarter of 1952. The NPA has delayed allocation of an initial allotment of 70,000 tons. Lausche estimated the turnpike would require 250,000 tons over a two-year period.

Taft said he always assumed other candidates would be seeking the nomination and that "Gen. Eisenhower would be one of them."

HE INTIMATED he had expected Eisenhower to doff his uniform as commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces and return as a civilian to campaign.

But Eisenhower said at his Paris headquarters Monday "under no circumstances will I ask for relief (Please turn to Page Two)

Electric Current Being Developed From Atom Energy

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—An atomic energy battery was announced here Tuesday. This battery changes radioactivity directly into electric current. That change is one of the great goals of the atomic age.

The report was made to the conference on electronics and nuclear energy of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers by Philip E. Ohmart of Cleveland.

The significance is explained by the Arco, Idaho, atomic reactor which is producing the world's first electric power from atomic energy. The Arco oven, or reactor, uses its heat to make steam, which in turn drives a dynamo.

The tremendous radioactivity which the reactor produces along with the heat is not used. It was wasted because there is no way to change it into electricity. But if this radioactivity is changed into electricity, that will not interfere with either quality or quantity of electricity made by the reactor.

The new atomic battery is apparently too inefficient, but it is such a good first step toward this goal that it is already in industrial and scientific use.

Negro Given Award For 'Sound off' Song

JOPLIN, Mo., Jan. 8.—(AP)—The first annual George Washington Carver Achievement Award went to a young Negro who originated the famous army marching song, "Sound Off."

Willie Lee Duckworth of Sandersville, Ga., composed the chant during World War II while in training at Ft. Slocum, N. Y.

The presentation was made during a program commemorating the birthday anniversary of Carver, noted Negro scientist born a slave near Diamond, Mo.

Four Face Jail Terms For Attack on Woman

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Judge Harold B. Doyle has sentenced four Youngstown men to three to 20 years in jail after they pleaded guilty to criminally attacking a 20-year-old Struthers woman last August.

The four are John Vostitsianos, 22; John Terlecki, 22; Frank P. Graziano, 31; and Robert Graves, 20. They pleaded innocent to charges they kidnapped the girl and those indictments are still pending.

World Famous Hypnotist To Be Here on Feb. 2

YBM To Sponsor Appearance of Dr. Franz Polgar

People in Fayette County will have an opportunity to see one of the foremost hypnotists in the world in action here at 8:30 P. M., Feb. 2, when Dr. Franz J. Polgar will make an appearance here under the sponsorship of the Young Business Men's organization.

Dr. Polgar has been seen by many persons over television; and there is a statement printed in Life Magazine that "he has hypnotized a million people...amused and amazed 10 million more."

Arrangements for Dr. Polgar, who holds degrees in psychology and economics, to appear in this city were made at a meeting of the Young Business Men's organization Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce office.

His representative, Larry Lawrence of Chicago, appeared before the group here and told them that Dr. Polgar's program will consist of three parts—memory, mental telepathy and hypnosis.

Articles about Dr. Polgar have appeared in several nationally known magazines, including Life, Look and the Saturday Evening Post and Dr. Polgar has made several appearances over television.

Don Wood has been named chairman of the committee, which will make arrangements for Dr. Polgar's appearance here.

Part of the proceeds of the Dr. Polgar show will be used by the Young Business Men for some type of civic program.

Announcement was made at the meeting that a pancake supper will be held Feb. 4 at the Grange Hall near the Country Club. Each member is to bring a guest.

Sam Athey was named the chairman of the "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week" which will be held here during the spring.

Taft Confident

from this assignment in order to seek nomination to political office and I shall not participate in the pre-convention activities of others who may have such an intention with respect to me."

Taft said he interprets this as meaning Eisenhower will have to be drafted to obtain the nomination, and commented:

"I think this will make matters easier for us."

Taft said he is confident he will be able to harvest a sizeable number of GOP convention delegates from New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Kansas, home states of the principal Eisenhower leaders.

Senator Schoepel of Kansas, a Taft backer, supported this contention with a prediction the Kansas delegation will go the convention unopposed and with some Taft delegates among its members.

Taft said he has been informed he has a good chance of getting a majority of the 10 delegates to be chosen at large in Pennsylvania, home state of Senator Duff, a leader in the Eisenhower drive.

Taft predicted he would come out of New York with "20 to 30" of the state's delegates. New York tentatively has been assigned 94 delegates, but is trying for 100.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has been maneuvering to line up solid support for Eisenhower in New York. Taft said that on the basis of present indications, he believes he will get one-third of the Massachusetts delegation which Senator Lodge (R-Mass.), national chairman of the Eisenhower movement, is trying to swing to the general.

Sen. Bridges Gets Nod

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(P)—Senator Bridges of New Hampshire was elected floor leader for Republican senators Tuesday by a 26 to 15 vote. He succeeds the late Senator Wherry of Nebraska.

Since an architect has not yet been hired, and cannot be until the money for the new wing is made available through sale of the bonds only preliminary talk relative to plans could be carried on. It was said that a meeting of the medical and surgical staff also would be held this week when the physicians will make known their recommendations to the board. Final decisions, however, will necessarily await preliminary drawings by an architect and decisions as to possible changes will follow after that.

It was agreed that another special meeting of the board would be held next Monday evening, pending further investigations by the board members. It is possible that a decision will be reached at this next meeting regarding the hiring of an architect.

Seal Reminders Increase Fund

Some Misunderstood Cards, It Is Said

Returns from the postal card reminders have swelled the Christmas Seal fund here to around $3,300, but the cards also have brought some headaches to the committee.

This was revealed Tuesday by J. Paul Strevey, the executive secretary of the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Strevey said Rev. Harold J. Braden, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and chairman of the Seal Sale this year, was "upset" by critical calls from a few of those who received the "reminder" cards after they had sent in their contributions to the fund.

Strevey explained first that Rev. Braden had nothing to do with the list from which the reminders were sent. Then he went on to point out that it was to be expected that some would get cards after they had sent their remittances for the Christmas Seals which had been mailed them last Nov. 15 at the start of the campaign.

"It is impossible," he declared, "to keep up with the returns as fast as they come in...and besides there is always that chance of human error in checking." He said too, that in some cases the cards and remittances passed each other in the mail.

THE HOPE was expressed "that the people will understand our problem, that we are merely doing our best to help raise money to carry on the fight against tuberculosis."

In some cases, he said, remittances will be made in cash with no note to identify the sender.

The 5,000 cards that were sent out about two weeks ago, Strevey emphasized, were merely "reminders" and were not to be regarded in any sense as a "dun."

The committee has said it hopes to raise at least $3,500 through the sale of Christmas Seals to continue its fight for better health this year.

Most of those to whom the "reminders" were sent not only understood but were appreciative, Strevey said. Many have told the committee they had forgotten about the seals in the holiday rush and were glad of the "reminder" cards so they could make their contributions.

FIGHTING MORE BITTER

SEOUL, Jan. 8.—(P)—United Nations infantrymen won—then lost—two important objectives Tuesday in the battle of Sasi Bulge, a bitter fight to recapture ground taken by the Reds Dec. 28.

The U. S. Eighth Army communique, reporting this, did not identify the western front objectives.

UN elements took one after a 15-minute fight with an enemy company and the other after a 10-minute engagement with a Red force of undetermined size.

However, the communique said, two Communist battalions supported by two tanks or self-propelled guns recaptured the first objective in a one-hour and 20-minute clash and a single Red battalion retook the second in a one-hour and 30-minute fray.

UN troops just missed recapturing the ground, a small hill west of Korangpo Monday. They fought through heavy Red fire to within 30 yards of the position before they were thrown back.

Allied jet fighters tangled briefly with Communist Mig-15s Tuesday, but the Air Force said no damage was suffered by either side.

MORE YANK CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(P)—The Defense Department Tuesday identified 131 additional battle casualties in Korea.

A new list reported 29 killed, 79 wounded, eight missing in action and 15 injured. It also listed four dead who were previously reported missing.

Congress Opener

elections in which a President, a vice-president, 435 House members and at least 32 senators will be chosen.

It's always that way in a general election year, the halls of Congress being a favorite forum for political speeches.

Legislatively, it probably won't produce much. Only a few "must" major bills are due for consideration. Topping them are UMT, economic controls, foreign-aid and billions in new appropriations.

POLITICALLY, it may be one of the hottest in decades. Supporters of Senator Taft of Ohio, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and other Republican presidential possibilities already were jockeying for position, and Democrats were countering at every opportunity.

From President Truman's State-of-the-Union message Wednesday, Democrats hope to obtain some clue as to whether Mr. Truman will seek reelection and if not, the issues on which the Democrats will be expected to base their campaign.

They expect the President to ask for many things Congress has refused to give him in the past. They remember that just four years ago President Truman snatched election victory from seeming defeat by pounding away at Congress' failure to enact his program.

Wednesday's message will be the first of three from the President. The others, on domestic economy and the budget, will follow within two weeks.

Chained Boy Found

tered the house and the officers were led into a room where a light flashed on.

Blinking in the sudden light was the boy, lying on a bed, a chain around his ankle and fastened to the foot of the bedstead.

LAST OCT. 20, Ricky said Billett told him he was a special police officer. The lad said he was accused of various thefts and was informed he would have to go with Billett for questioning.

"I really thought he was a policeman," Ricky said. Ricky then told of a series of beatings, which he said were described as "tests to see if I would confess to stealing all that stuff."

Republican Named

is quitting Jan. 15. The President, in a letter addressed to "Dear Stu," said he accepted the resignation with "utmost reluctance."

Symington took over the RFC last May after President Truman abolished the agency's five-man board of directors, following sensational hearings by a Senate subcommittee. The hearings produced the capital's first mink coat scandals and the subcommittee accused the directors of yielding to a political influence ring with White House connections.

McDonald promised he would continue Symington's "goldfish bowl" policy of disclosing all information on government loans. He said he hoped to retain most of the key RFC personnel.

As for political influence, McDonald said, "we just don't expect anybody to try it. We certainly won't permit it."

As a Republican leader, he was chairman of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission for three years. He was appointed to the SEC by President Truman in 1947 and became chairman in 1949. The new post would mean an increase in salary for McDonald from $15,000 to $17,500.

Heavy Negro Vote Predicted this Fall

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(P)—A Negro leader predicts two million Negro voters—twice as many as voted in 1950—will cast ballots in the south in this year's presidential election.

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, made the prediction Monday in a report to the annual NAACP meeting.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 — (P)—Those wonderful characters are never at a loss for words in an election year, the political prophets, are now telling you positively the relative chances of Gen. Eisenhower, Senator Taft and others for the Republican presidential nomination.

They will speak with an air of infallibility, which may turn out to be more air than ability, as they demonstrated in 1948 when they had President Truman whipped before the returns were in.

Too much can happen—war, for instance—between now and the Republican convention in July for anyone to make a bet this early and be sure of winning.

Taft and his friends know their way around and the senator didn't announce his candidacy early in the fall just to exercise his tonsils which he later had out, by the way. Time is precious and they're making the most of it, lining up all the "pros" they can induce into a room long enough for a heart-to-heart talk.

THE TAFTEES got a lesson in the importance of the pros in 1948 when the senator yearned for the nomination, just as he does now, but the Gov. Deweyites grabbed it away from him by driving up with the pros in their pocket.

Now if the Taffees have enough pros in their basket by next July they may be able to nail the nomination for their man, no matter how much popular clamor there is for Eisenhower, since it's the convention pros who pick the candidate and not the crowd yelling in the street.

But this may not always be true, which is a situation that flitters the prophets, because the pros in both political parties always seem to have an interest in feathering their own political nests and if they see more feathers in a clamor than a promise they might pull a switch.

At any rate the Taffees have a head start on the followers of the general whose candidacy is beginning with a limp since he still hasn't said in so many words that he is a candidate although he's given his friends the go-ahead to get him the nomination if they can. A Republican, Senator Ferguson of Michigan, seemed to react bleakly to all the news for he said: "The delegates to a national convention are going to want to know where a candidate stands on the issues."

The senator may have something there.

Even Horse Meat Getting too High

COLUMBUS, Jan. 8 — (P)—Dog biscuit may soon replace horse meat on the menu in Columbus Zoo.

Superintendent Earl F. Davis said horse meat is getting hard to find and also costs too much. Recently the zoo bought 18,000 pounds of horse meat for $2,151, Davis said.

Today horse meat costs 11 to 12 cents a pound. Ten years ago it was only six or seven cents a pound. Davis said that until the meat shortage years of World War II the animals ate beef.

159 Prisoner Letters Turned over by Reds

PANMUNJOM, Jan. 8 — (P)—A batch of 159 letters from UN prisoners of war was turned over to United Nations postal officers Monday by the Communists.

At the same time, the UN turned over 1,087 letters from United States to be delivered to men in the Red prison camps, plus eight letters from UN-held Communist prisoners to their families in North Korea and China.

Fess Announces For Ohio Senate

Greene County Man Favors Rotary Rule

With the announcement Tuesday of Lowell Fess, Greene County Republican, two candidates are now in the field for the Republican nomination for the seat in the Ohio State Senate from this fifth-sixth senatorial district.

The other candidate recently announced is Attorney Winston W. Hill, city manager of Washington C. H.

Lowell Fess

The counties of Fayette, Ross, Highland, Clinton and Greene compose this district. The present senator is Albert L. Daniels of Greenfield, who recently announced his candidacy for Congress in the newly revamped sixth Ohio district.

Fess, 56, is known to quite a number of people in this county. He is the son of the late U. S. Senator Simeon D. Fess.

Lowell Fess is now serving his fourth term from Greene County in the House of the Ohio General Assembly. His public announcement came in the form of a letter to Republican chairmen of counties in the district.

An important feature of the Fess announcement is that he is a firm believer in the Republican rotary rule that formerly existed for many years in this fifth-sixth district's five counties, whereby each county rotates the nomination after the incumbent serves two terms.

Fess has been active in Republican politics in Ohio and Greene County for the past thirty years, having served as mayor of Yellow Springs for three terms; member of the Greene County Board of Elections; committeeman and chairman for four years of the Greene County Republican Central Committee.

A graduate of Yellow Springs High School and Antioch College in 1915, Fess was successively a high school instructor and athletic coach; machine gun officer with overseas service in World War I; secretary to his late father, U. S. Senator Fess; secretary of the Ohio Retail Dry Goods Association and assistant director of the Ohio Council of Retail Merchants, and sales manager for two large industrial concerns.

Margaret Smith Appointed Clerk

Miss Margaret Smith of Jeffersonville, was appointed clerk in the public assistance office (county relief department) Monday afternoon by the Fayette County Board of Commissioners.

She is expected to assume her duties on Jan. 16, to take the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Minnie Mayo Flesher, who expects to move to Cincinnati early in February. She probably will stay until Feb. 1 to assist in training her replacement.

Auto Club Has 2,575 Members

When the Fayette County Automobile Club was organized by Howard C. Allen in 1919 and obtained its charter on April 10 of that year, the club was launched with 48 charter members.

Now, the membership is 2,575, and the club has been growing steadily for years.

The incorporators of the club were: J. M. Willis, W. D. Craig, C. H. Brownell, W. S. Robinson and Howard C. Allen.

In the State Legislature he has been particularly active on behalf of agriculture and conservation, the schools and welfare institutions as well as veterans' affairs and has sponsored considerable and important legislation which became law. He has served on numerous committees including finance, organization of state government, military affairs, health, and commerce and transportation.

A widower, Mr. Fess has two children, Nancy 20 and Tommy 15. He is a charter member of the American Legion and past Chief of the Greene County Voiture of the Forty and Eight Society; a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars; Fish and Game Association; Farm Forum; War Vets Republican Club and the Presbyterian Church, and is a Mason and an Elk.

Changes in Cattle Business Predicted at Meeting of Ohio Association Here -- OPS Scored

Half a hundred members of the County Cattle Feeders Association meeting here Monday night heard a prediction that "things in the cattle business are going to change" and then the expressed hope that the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) price controls would be "knocked out."

The association, at its meeting in the Anderson Drive-in dining room, was addressed by Flenner Mellinger, the state president, who gave the feeders here his preview of things to come.

James Warner, the state secretary, who also spoke at the meeting, gave some vital statistics on cattle and cattle feeding.

ONE OF THE changes predicted by Mellinger was that "with the rising price of beef everyone will be wanting to raise cattle."

"That," he said, "is good, but may tend to reduce the quality to meet the demand of the consumers."

Mellinger explained some of the needs and services of the cattle feeders association. Research in feeds and improvement of the breeds was among those cited.

Warner declared that there are 29 percent more cattle on feed in Ohio this year than last and that in the United States there are 12 percent more.

"This means," he said, "there will probably be more cattle on the market one of these days."

WARNER ALSO warned the cattlemen that they were going to have to learn not only all phases of cattle raising, but also the grading and slaughtering of cattle. "What we see and judge in the barn lot as choice grade doesn't always agree with the grader at the market," he said.

He added that the cattle raiser was also going to have to have a pretty good answer and explanation of just what parity was and how the cattlemen could agree to a parity price on all farm commodities, but beef.

In connection with the research being done, Warner told the cattlemen that the keystone to raising better cattle lay in producing cattle, through selective breeding, that would produce more weight on the same amount of feed.

A state cattlemen's association meeting is planned for January 22 and 23, it was announced during the meeting. The state organization will hold its meeting at the Ft. Hayes Hotel in Columbus. The turnout for the meeting here

Fading Prospects For Balancing Budget

It sounds like an old story, retold time after time, but that does not relieve the seriousness of our federal government's financial situation.

Too much party politics, useless job holders, too many favors, too much carelessness about how taxes are spent, and too much corruption and favoritism in government circles, has brought about conditions which soon, very soon, can put us in a place where we won't be able to help ourselves.

It is almost now that prospects for a balanced federal budget have all but faded, although the administration may continue to talk about it, but with little enthusiasm.

President Truman's advisers have told him taxes have about reached their limit, while at the same time there are no signs that spending it to be reduced.

The result will be another multibillion-dollar deficit for the fiscal year starting next July 1, and the present national national debt of $259,000,000,000 will be given a big boost. Adding to this unhappy situation is the prediction the government will operate in the red for at least another three or four years.

Meanwhile President Truman is expected to ask Congress for new taxes to cover the amount of the deficit predicted for next year. Administration heads, however, want him to admit the fact that the bottom of the tax barrel has been reached, and deficit spending must continue as a necessity.

Increased tax burdens will find little favor with the people, and would have a bad effect on the voters in 1952, according to political observers. The boys in soft government jobs are fearful of this in an election year.

Congress has shown a disposition to get hard-boiled over tax increase. Administration advisers say that in view of the prospect Truman should not stick his neck out and get blamed for more taxes, only to be turned down by Congress.

Whatever happens it appears now the nation will operate in the red for an indefinite period, as it has been doing most of the time for many years.

Long Service

With the reorganization of the Washington C. H. board of education Monday, three men who have given eight years of faithful service in city school work, have ended their duties as members.

Robert A. Craig, William C. Allen, Sr. and Thomas S. Christopher, each of whom has served two full four year terms, have bowed out of the school picture officially but will retain a deep interest in the continued progress of this important feature of the city's make-up, one which has much influence on the city's future.

Each man in this group has seen much school activity, has noted the school needs and has expressed ideas as to plans for the future. Each one has shown an interest in keeping school costs within the city's ability to pay yet consistent with school advances. Each has tried to do a thankless job well and each deserves the appreciation of this community.

School for Grass Roots Singers

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—The glitter of the Diamond Horseshoe of New York's Metropolitan Opera House is reflected in a studio over a jewelry store here.

It's a long jump between the two points, but Director Robert C. Bird of the Carolina Opera School believes some of his students can make the grade.

The school, launched under the extension service of the University of North Carolina, already has some of the glamour of the Met. One of its staff members is Norman Cordon, a native North Carolinian who sang baritone roles with the Metropolitan.

Another member of the staff is Mrs. Estelle Rucker, equally famed as a concert pianist and as Vice President Alben Barkley's mother-in-law.

SOME OTHER universities offer training in opera, but this school has its own touring company to give students actual on-the-road experience, Bird explained. The Grass Roots Opera Company, a project of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs, helps the students take the music of Verdi and Mozart to small towns and rural areas of the state. The federation also helped launch the school.

Bird, a former director of the Fort Worth, Tex., Civic Opera Association, said he has found a lot of enthusiasm for opera in touring the state. He directs the opera company as well as the school.

The picture wasn't so rosy when the school first set up shop in a Raleigh residential district last fall. After the first few operatic trills sounded through the neighborhood, distressed citizens took their complaints to the city council.

The council amended zoning ordinances to ban opera schools from residential districts and the school moved downtown. The prima donnas now practice in the rooms over the jewelry store and in a radio station's soundproof studios.

Singing isn't the only subject taught. Students also get training in opera dramatics, costuming and stage techniques. If they wish, they can receive undergraduate credit at the university at Chapel Hill about 30 miles away.

About 20 students are enrolled. Most take full-time work, but some come in for evening classes.

The operas the students take on the road with the Grass Roots Company are all given in English. This is the only way opera will ever gain a secure foothold in America, says Bird. Faculty members and local singers are recruited to fill out the casts for Grass Roots productions. Music is supplied by Mrs. Rucker at the piano.

In choosing operas for production, Bird steers away from such heavy fare as Wagner. Comic opera is the standard choice. Mozart's "School for Lovers" is a favorite. The company also has presented Bizet's "Carmen," and Verdi's "La Traviata."

Return of Churchill to America

Among Britishers, none appeals to the American imagination as does Winston Churchill. As British as John Bull, he has an instinct for American atmosphere and personality.

He comes to repair the damage done to Anglo-American relations by the British Socialists, the pro-British excesses of Dean Acheson Americans who are captives of British culture. In a word, he must recognize as few of his countrymen do, that Americans who are more pro-Russian than they are pro-American. The American people are turning from a synthetic globalism, which has brought nothing but misery and death, to patriotism, which built our country.

Churchill is neither a Socialist nor a Globalist. He is a British Imperialist who did not take office to preside over the dissolution of the British empire. He represents in his person not only a country, but a civilization.

Yet, it is impossible for him not to recognize three major historic factors which may, in the broadest sense, be producing the forces that will reduce Great Britain to a secondary role. These are:

1. The rise of new civilizations, out of war and revolution, which contest Anglo-Saxon supremacy and superiority not only from the economic and political standpoint but also on a racial basis:

2. The reduction of the authority in world affairs of the processing nations, with the attendant wealth that comes from banking, shipping and insurance. The automatic machine reduces the advantages of human skills and even the so-called "know-how" of experience. Thus new industrial revolution is already having far-reaching effects upon the great colonial powers:

3. The rise of new empires—the Soviet empire; the Moslem cultural empire; the Latins, perhaps under Spanish or Argentinian leadership; the emergence of Soviet China as a military power; the expansion of the Soviet periphery toward the Indian countries — these historic factors can only be ignored by a political ostrich — a description that can never fit Winston Churchill. Among these new empires, military operations are not conventional, involving the Anglo-American countries in major difficulties.

The British, as the Americans, are being forced to recognize that inaccurately described racial problems move upon the current canvas with greater vigor than either economic or political problems. A Pakistani will not, for instance, accept the Anglo-Saxon concept of "white superiority," which has no foundation in science or history.

This is tough business and difficult to discuss in the United States where the Negro problem arouses deep emotions. Yet, we are piling up casualties in Korea over precisely this problem. I can say from my own long experience in Asia that if we spent billions upon billions on that continent to make ourselves popular and to engage the goodwill of those peoples, we shall fail as long as those peoples believe that we believe that we are superior because of race.

True, Soviet Russia is doing a masterly job stimulating racial antagonism. They will profit greatly out of the stupidities of the Florida bombings. But long before Soviet Russian propaganda appeared on the scene, what in Asia is called "anti-colonialism," which is racial, not nationalistic, was a force I first encountered in China as early as 1918 and in Japan in 1920. The Japanese Black Dragon Society, headed by Mituru Toyama, was already a force.

Churchill undoubtedly comes here for money, but he is no arrogant beggar like his socialist predecessors whom our State Department supported. He has pride of country. Yet, he must face frankly the cold fact that most Americans find distasteful the British political affinity for Chinese Communists who massacre Americans, particularly prisoners of war.

He would be well advised to reject the counsel of the emotionally captive pro-Britishers who feel that England can do no wrong even if his name is Attlee or Bevan.

British policy in Asia can no longer dominate American policy in Asia, and even Dean Acheson accepts a medal from the Jewish war veterans because there are no Arab voters in critical states in an election year. Churchill will grasp the essence of that because he understands votes. He can discover the pressure of public opinion here on such questions as China, Korea, Israel, Iran and Egypt. We are not going along with colonialism.

Winston Churchill is preferable, from an American standpoint, to British Socialism, headed by the pro-Russian Aneurin Bevan. But he needs to recognize what, in 1952, the American people will no longer support. Copyright 1951. King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Sometimes people thoughtlessly leave lye within the reach of children, who eat it, thinking it is something good. Such an occurrence is very dangerous and calls for quick action. Of course, lye should always be kept out of the reach of children and should be plainly labeled.

Eating lye causes an immediate inflammation and swelling of the membrane that lines the esophagus, the tube between the throat and stomach. This prevents the child from swallowing. As the swelling goes down, he may be able to swallow again in a week or so, if the lye burns are not too severe. This is only the beginning of the trouble, however, for in two to three weeks scar tissue begins to form and gradually blocks off the esophagus.

Physician Essential

This is the reason it is essential to call a physician at once if a child is suspected of swallowing lye. The doctor can then begin treatment as soon and as adequately as possible. This action may prevent permanent injury. Two percent acetic acid or weak vinegar should be taken as soon as possible to counteract a recent lye burn. A rubber tube should then be passed down the esophagus to keep open a passage-way to the stomach and also to provide a route for nourishment. The doctor can usually wash out the stomach at this time and prevent constriction and scar tissue from forming there.

The tube can be removed after two to four days. The child must then swallow a string, and beads are passed down the esophagus on the string. The beads are of gradually larger size in order to widen the opening of the esophagus. Sometimes this treatment must be kept up for four to six months to prevent scar tissue from forming.

Good Results

It may be so hard for the patient to swallow food during this period that he must be fed by injection through a vein. The whole treatment is very tedious and unpleasant, but it gives good results with most lye burns.

Some burns are so severe that no opening can be made in the esophagus. For these cases, a way has been discovered to construct a new plastic esophagus later in life. However, this is a most difficult surgical procedure.

Don't let your negligence be responsible for placing a can of lye within the reach of a child!

Will it be over, over there in Korea? Do the Reds want peace, a showdown, or a stalemate? What's their next move... and where?

What surprises will the conventions bring? Who'll win Nov. 4? What'll it mean to foreign aid, business, labor, the cost of living?

Will these be 1952's biggest stories?

You don't know now. But you do know that when they break, right that minute you'll want your newspaper.

Where else can you get the whole story so fast? So close to the event—so full of fact, detail and color... so quick with answers to "what led up to it?" and "what do they say about it?" and "where do we go from here?"

There's some story nearly every day that's big to you. So you want your newspaper as you want food and air.

You share that basic, essential hunger with everybody else. Your own suspense may be tied to the banner headlines... somebody else's may hang on a special in the white sales.

What medical discovery will make news in '52? Will another "incurable" disease be conquered?

But sometime each day everybody wants to see the newspaper. It's one thing people won't do without.

• Why do advertisers spend more of their money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising?

Simply because everybody reads the newspaper every day—for its advertising as well as for fun or for news.

So—if you're selling something that's advertised, why should it be advertised to fractions of the people?

Radio and TV programs reach only fractions of anybody's market. Each one appeals to only a special audience. And even the people interested can't all listen.

Magazines reach only fractions of a market. For each one appeals to some people—not to others.

The newspaper talks to everybody in town—at the time they choose, for as long as they choose! The newspaper is first with the most news...the most people...the most advertisers!

The newspaper is always "first with the most"

Mrs. Stemler Is Hostess To DAR Members, Monday; Mrs. Yadon, Guest Speaker

Always a gracious hostess, Mrs. Albert S. Stemler welcomed the members of the Washington Court House Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution Monday for the first meeting of the new year.

Four distinguished members from Johnathon Dayton Chapter were guests for the afternoon. Mrs. Charles Lee Mills, state chairman of transportation, Mrs. Charles F. Drake, registrar, Mrs. Robert J. Yabon, chairman, and Mrs. Robert E. Yadon, state chairman of Junior membership who was the guest speaker for the afternoon.

Mrs. Karl J. Kay regent, opened the meeting with the customary form, and Mrs. D. H. Rowe led in the devotions.

Mrs. F. D. Woollard, chairman of correct use of the flag, led the Pledge of Allegiance and this was followed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Mrs. Loren D. Hynes read the new year message from the president general and the secretary, Mrs. J. Earl McLean, read the report of the December meeting.

Mrs. A. S. Stemler, chairman of the national building completion committee read a letter from the national chairman, Mrs. Donald B. Adams concerning a contribution to the building fund.

Mrs. Kay then called for the budget committee's report which was read by Miss Fannie McLean and the chapter voted to send five dollars to the Bacone Indian College, the same amount to Tamassee, one fifty for genealogical records, $22.19 for Waldschmidt House Restoration, $4.25 will go to Leonard Lewis the Indian student at Wilmington College and a substantial payment will be made to the national building fund.

Mrs. Ray Maynard, motion picture chairman, read a list of pictures suggested by the national picture preview committee which included twenty pictures for adults and children.

Election of delegates and alternates to the state conference resulted in Mrs. John D. Forsythe, Miss Charlene Mark and Mrs. Harry M. Rankin being chosen as delegates and alternates, Mrs. Ray Maynard, Mrs. Fred Enslen, Mrs. Ralph Penn, Mrs. Leonard Korn and Mrs. Loren D. Hynes.

For the sixty-first Continental Congress, the delegate chosen in addition to the regent was Mrs. Loren D. Hynes and the alternates are Mrs. A. S. Stemler, Mrs. John Weade, Miss Fannie McLean and Mrs. Willard Creamer.

Following the election the regent Mrs. Kay, introduced each of the Dayton guests and presented Mrs. Robert E. Yadon as guest speaker.

Mrs. Yadon spoke briefly on the junior membership and told of a trip she and her brother had made to Bavaria, in 1950 for the Oberammergau Passion Play and illustrated her talk with colored slides made from pictures taken during their stay over there, as guests in the home of the young lady, Annie who played the part of the Virgin Mary.

Mrs. Yadon's account of their visit was most enthralling.

A brief board meeting followed and at its conclusion a delightful social hour was enjoyed during which Mrs. Stemler and her assistants served a delicious collation.

Those assisting were Mrs. Loren D. Hynes, Mrs. Robert Terhune, Mrs. Eliza Waddell, Mrs. Frank Reichelderfer, Mrs. Robert Heath, Mrs. Auburn W. Duff, Mrs. Ronald Cornwell, Mrs. Harold Hyer, Mrs. J. R. Morehouse, Mrs. Charles Gallagher and Mrs. H. D. Shankle.

Sorority Plans Founder's Day Supper Dance

Mrs. Frank Baker was hostess to the members of Phi Beta Psi Sorority Monday evening for the first meeting of the new year.

Mrs. Paul Pennington, president, presided over the business session, during which plans were formulated for a buffet supper and dance at the Washington Country Club, February 16, which will celebrate the annual Founder's Day of the sorority, and will include husbands and friends of members as guests.

Mrs. Pennington conducted a refresher course for the members, and discussions were held on new projects to be adopted for the year and old business was also concluded for the year.

The meeting was adjourned and as usual the members enjoyed the progressive bridge game at seven tables and at the conclusion awards went to Mrs. M. Grove Davis, who was the holder of high score, Mrs. J. Paul Stevey, second, and Mrs. William Junk, third.

During the evening light refreshments were served by the hostess and her assisting committee, Miss Clara Story, Mrs. William Limes and Mrs. William McArthur.

PTA Council Votes To Sponsor Magic Show Here in April

Members of the city-wide Parent Teachers Council voted at their meeting Monday night to sponsor the Raymond Stephens Magic Show in April, with the proceeds to go for a dental clinic.

Announcement was made that the mobile dental unit will visit the schools during the first part of February.

The group voted to have a combined "Founders Program" in the Little Theatre on Thursday, Feb. 21. Talent will be provided by the children, and there will be an inspiring speaker on the program.

Mrs. Charles Hupp, who is the president of the group, called the meeting to order and told of the "Parent Education Conference" which she attended.

She reported that schools cannot

The exact date will be announced later.

A district meeting has been planned in April; the date and place are not decided upon as yet. Mrs. Campbell announced that Achievement Day will be held March 27.

Mrs. Loren Johnson, president, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Glenn Smith, who is the Fayette County contact chairman. She in turn introduced Mrs. Cozad and Mrs. Campbell.

The next council meeting will be held at 12 noon, Feb. 11, in the Hotel Washington.

Loses 40 Lbs. Goes From Size 42 Dress To A 16

Marion Lady Is Relieved Of Gas And Bloat

"Rennel Concentrate has done wonders for me," writes Helen Lahr, 119 W. Mill St., Marion, Ohio. "I weighed 180 lbs. when I started to take Rennel, and now I weigh 140 lbs. My dress size has changed from size 42 to 16, and I have lost all that heaviness. Rennel has also relieved me of bloat and gas. I have cut down on starchy foods, but eat anything I want."

It's amazing how quickly you can lose unsightly fat at home. Obtain 4 ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate at your druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two table-spoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it—you can get normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves—Rennel's reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. Insist on genuine Rennel.

FB Council in Lively Discussion Hits PMA And Brannan Survey

A grass roots organization—the Union Township Farm Bureau Council—favors the elimination of payments by the Production Marketing Administration, less federal control and reduction in personnel and expenditures of the extension service.

This is revealed in a summary of opinions expressed at a meeting of the council Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bush.

Lowell Kaufman led the spirited discussion on farm policy, which resulted in the opinion being expressed that little would be gained by holding a state constitutional convention.

ANYTHING WHICH should be accomplished could be taken care of by legislative or initiative action, and the great expense of a convention could be eliminated.

The group voted unanimously in favor of the following resolution:

"The Union Township Farm Bureau Council No. 1 commends Judge Brubaker in his precedent of suspending a driver's license until the driver can show liability insurance."

The Brannan family survey and the Farm Bureau survey were both criticized as being biased, with the conclusions decided upon before the surveys were made.

THE GROUP SUMMARIZED its opinions as follows on the subjects listed:

1. Farm organizations and the USDA should both make frequent surveys of farm opinion and, if the surveys are well made, the groups will obtain the same results. Federal agencies should make frequent surveys.

2. Federal supervision of federal programs should not stop at state levels but continue to local levels. This opinion is based on the premise that agencies given federal funds to distribute should have authority to see that the money is spent for the purpose Congress allotted it. Many programs now in effect could be eliminated and the supervisors dismissed in the interest of economy and good government.

3. Agricultural Conservation payments should be eliminated entirely. PMA has outlived the need for which it was created.

4. FARM COMMITTEES should serve without pay; (example, soil conservation service committee members are unpaid) in an advisory capacity with some administrative authority in extension service activities.

5. Soil conservation service should supervise all programs in soil conservation as it offers the only trained personnel.

6. Price support programs should be discontinued except the commodity loan and storage of basic commodities program, known as "the ever normal granary" program.

7. All federal credit agencies should be placed in one organization. The Farmers Home Administration should be continued, but perhaps limited.

8. FEDERAL AND STATE experiment stations should be encouraged through increased appropriations and given credit for what they do. The experiment station function is to conduct research; the College of Agriculture function is to teach college students; the extension service function is to disseminate the information released by research at the experiment stations; the vocational agriculture

He May Get His Hair Mussed

Ike's Domestic Views Remain Undisclosed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The American public knows exactly where Gen. Eisenhower stands on foreign affairs, but very little about what he thinks on domestic problems.

In the foreign field he's made it plain he's an internationalist. That he's for cooperation with and help for, this country's allies in building a wall against Russia.

But on domestic issues he's been very unspecific. He's spoken at most always in generalities. Most of the talking was done during the brief time he was president of Columbia University.

He's said he's for free enterprise and a minimum of government interference. Since most people would say they feel the same, those views are completely safe for any man who might be thinking of getting into politics.

MEANWHILE, the public is far better informed about the views, foreign and domestic, of some of the other men who have been mentioned as possible candidates, or who have announced themselves as candidates, for the presidency.

To take two extreme opposites: President Truman and Senator Taft. Their views are known. And people have been able to choose between them on the basis of their ideas and their performance.

Still, the opinion polls show the general—of whose domestic views the public knows practically nothing—and home economics departments teach at high school level. These are separate activities and should operate under separate appropriations and personnel.

The next meeting of the council will be held February 3. The meeting will be a supper affair and it will be held with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rhoad.

ing—is out in front of all the others mentioned as presidential possibilities.

Maybe this means at the moment a lot of people consider personality the issue in the coming campaign, not the big problems that usually go hand in hand with a presidential race.

If so, they may be looking, in this period which is uncertain for everyone, for a feeling of certainty in a candidate, one who appears serene and has been able to operate with unbroken success, a symbol of strength.

Neither Mr. Truman nor Senator Taft can provide such a picture of serenity or unbroken success. Having been in politics for years, both have suffered rebuffs and defeats along with successes.

So far the general has been a kind of American fair-haired boy.

HE'S ALWAYS stuck pretty close to his own business, soldiering, he's never had his hair mussed by the rough hand of politics.

He'll probably get it mussed if he steps into the political campaign. Undoubtedly he already has plenty of enemies for his views on foreign affairs, since not everyone shares them. Once he begins getting specific about his domestic idea, no matter what they are, he'll add to his enemies.

16 Ohioans Killed In Hunting Mishaps

During the recent hunting season in Ohio, 16 persons were killed and 87 wounded in accidents caused by guns.

Three or four persons were accidentally shot and wounded in Fayette County.

The 1950 hunting casualty list in Ohio totaled seven killed and 112 wounded.

Drivers Are Fined In Municipal Court

Two intoxicated drivers, appearing before Judge Robert L. Brubaker in municipal court on Monday, drew fines with part of them suspended as long as they deep out of trouble.

One driver, Ray B. Cartwright, of Sabina, was fined $500 and costs, and $400 of the amount was suspended.

Louie Thompson Ornes drew $150 and costs, with $50 suspended for good conduct.

No suspension of drivers' license was made in either case, the suspended fines being imposed instead.

Annual Election of Fayette Hobby Club

The annual election of the Fayette County Hobby Club will be held Friday night at the regular meeting of the club, which will be in the City Building.

A covered dish supper will feature the meeting, at 6:30 P. M., and exhibit of unusual articles and sale or exchange of goods also will take place.

President F. Scott Zimmerman said Tuesday that decision regarding the club's participation in the annual corn and hobby show must be made at the meeting.

Good Hope PTO To Receive First Aid Instruction

Announcement was made today that the initial first aid course of the new year will be taught to a class of women who are members of the Good Hope Parent Teachers Organization.

The class will be started at 7:30 P. M. Wednesday at the Wayne Township High School. D. D. Hess of Washington C. H., will be the instructor. He has been working with James Yates, official Red Cross first aid instructor for this county, since 1946.

The course of instruction will last for two hours a night, for 12 nights.

Yates said today that the Silver Rocket Motorcycle Club has four more meetings before it finishes up its course.

3 OSU Students Fined for Theft

COLUMBUS, Jan. 8.—Three Ohio State University seniors pleaded guilty Saturday to petit larceny in the theft of two statues from a Nativity scene at St. Joseph Cathedral.

Municipal Judge Rodney Ross fined the three youths $100 and court costs each. He suspended 60 day workhouse sentences.

The students were given until Feb. 2 to pay the fines.

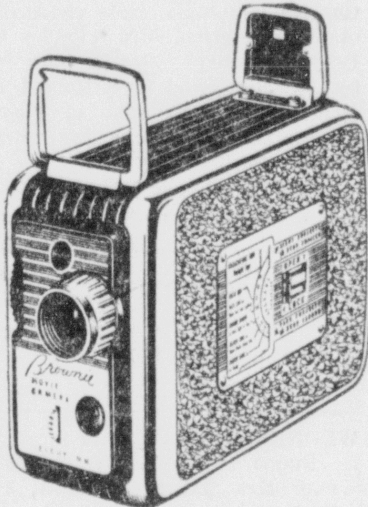

The trip were Hamilton Alan Cooper, 21, son of Brig. Gen. Kenneth Cooper of Columbus, the assistant adjutant general of Ohio; Howard R. Matre, 22, of Hamilton and Richard E. McNelly, 23, of Brookville.

Judge Ross lectured the three youths for 15 minutes. He called them a "bunch of ill-advised smarties."

The northern part of Mexico's Lower California has enjoyed a decade of such phenomenal population growth that it is now seeking promotion to Mexican statehood.

New Stickers For Autos Go On Sale Mar. 1

Take Place of New License Plates During This Year

License stickers for automobiles and other motor vehicles, which will take the place of new tags this year, will go on sale at the Fayette County Auto Club office on March 1.

Deputy Registrar Howard C. Allen points out that it will be necessary for applicants to have their certificates of title and 1951 registration cards before the stickers can be issued.

If anyone has lost their 1951 registration card, they must apply for a duplicate, and Registrar Allen asks that those who have lost their cards, do this at once to avoid the rush after March 1.

The state of Ohio will conserve about 1,600 tons of valuable steel by issuing window stickers instead of steel license plates this year, according to the registrar of motor vehicles, R. E. Foley.

PERSONS HAVING special plates will not receive a letter this year from the bureau of motor vehicles. They are to purchase a sticker at their local deputy registrar's office at no additional cost.

The law states that the window stickers used for motor vehicle license tax must be placed in the lower right hand corner of the windshield.

Window stickers will come in different colors, according to the type of vehicle. Passenger cars will be blue; trucks, yellow; trailers, white; and dealers, red and purple.

The state is expecting to sell over 3,200,000 stickers this year to vehicle owners.

Three Fayette Men at Purdue

Of the 560 Ohio students enrolled in Purdue University, at East Lafayette, Ind., three are from Fayette County.

They are: James M. Fox, 417 Rawlings Street, freshman in agriculture; Lee Draper, Jr., of near Washington C. H., a freshman in engineering; and Merrill E. Evans, of near Jeffersonville, a senior in chemical engineering.

At the present time there are 9,273 students regularly enrolled at Purdue, with 1,134 additional students in university credit courses, 3,495 in technical institute and special courses in extension centers, so that the total enrollment is 13,902.

Buck Cagers Win In Final Second

Unbeaten Indiana Nosed Out by Ohio

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(P)—The list of the nation's major unbeaten college basketball teams has dwindled to nine because a substitute guard sank a field goal in the last second of play.

That goal by Dick Dawe gave Ohio State's Buckeyes a 73-72 victory over the previously all-conquering Hoosiers from Indiana and the nation's fourth ranking team Monday night. Indiana won eight straight prior to Monday night.

With a lead of 72-67, Indiana tried to freeze the ball with four minutes to go.

With three of its stars sidelined on personal fouls, Ohio State counted on two baskets by Dean Cook, substitute guard, to cut the margin to 72-71. Then, in the final three seconds, Tommy Hogue missed a free toss for the Buckeyes.

But Dawe recovered the ball in the scramble that followed and put in the clincher.

Two other undefeated Big Ten fives, however, kept their perfect records intact. Second ranked Illinois edged Wisconsin, 53-49, and Iowa's Hawkeyes, who moved into 10th place this week in the Associated Press poll, dumped Michigan, 54-46. It was No. 9 for both the Illinois and the Hawkeyes.

THE RESULTS of the four Big Ten games, which also included Michigan State's 82-49 decision over Northwestern, left Illinois and Iowa tied for first place. Each has won two conference games.

Seton Hall, the only other undefeated team to see action Monday night, made it 11 straight by trouncing St. Peter's of Jersey City, N. J., 84-61. Seton Hall is No. 9 nationally.

Kentucky, twice beaten but still ranked third back of Kansas and Illinois, went on another of its scoring sprees to defeat Xavier of Cincinnati, 83-50.

In the Southeastern Conference, Vanderbilt defeated Louisiana State, 58-47, as LSU's Bob Pettit, the nation's second leading individual scorer, was held to 10 points — lowest of the season.

Mississippi set a school record by walloping Georgia, 103-52, quite a contrast to a week ago when Ole Miss had 116 points scored against it by Kentucky.

Herb Neff tossed in 28 points as Tulane registered six points in an overtime period to defeat Tennessee, 71-65, in another Southeastern Conference fray.

Lion Cub Cagers To Play Hillsboro There Wednesday

Not to be outdone by their bigger brothers, the Lion Cubs are swinging back into action on the basketball courts again after the holiday intermission as they point for their second game of the season Wednesday afternoon at Hillsboro.

The Cubs, made up of boys from the seventh and eighth grades, have played one inter-school game to date. That was with the Tiger Cubs from Greenfield here and they won it in a romp, 44 to 17.

The second game on their schedule was postponed because of snow and hazardous travel conditions. They were to have gone to Wilmington just before the start of the holidays, but the game was called off. The date for the play-off has not been set.

Fred Pierson, a football coach turned basketball coach for the Juniors in the winter, has had the Cub squad on the WHS gym in the evenings and on Saturday when the Varsity and Reserve squads vacated it.

Pierson admits the basketball technique he teaches is pretty well down to the fundamentals. It is summed up with his favorite expression: "Get the ball and put it in the basket."

The Cubs had a complete layoff from their favorite winter sport from the time of the snow just before Christmas until they went back to classes after the holidays. They had no games and they held no practices.

All of the Cub games are played in the afternoon after school. The Varsity and Reserve games are played at night.

Yankees Rated No. 1 Ball Team

Giants Second In Poll by AP

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(P)—For the second straight year, the New York Yankees baseball club was picked as the Team of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll.

The Yanks, who swept to their third straight American League and World Series triumph under Manager Casey Stengel, beat out the New York Giants in the poll just as they did in the series.

Casey's club received 53 first place votes and 305 points on a 3-2-1 basis to finish 56 points ahead of the Giants, whose stirring comeback captured the imagination of writers and fans everywhere. Leo Durocher's team was named first by 52 of the 214 sports writers and sportscasters who took part in the poll. The Giants collected 251 points.

From this point on, the ballot results probably will raise some eyebrows. They were cast before some playoff and bowl games and the upset teams rank ahead of the upstarts.

CLEVELAND'S Browns, beaten in the National Football League championship playoff by the Los Angeles Rams, were selected for third place with 48 first place votes and 249 points.

Tennessee, voted the No. 1 college football team of the past season in the AP poll, finished fourth with 138 points while the Vols' conquerors, Maryland's Terrapins, wound up 10th with 28 points.

Michigan State's No. 2 footballers, who were unbeaten in 10 games, took fifth place with 60 points.

Kentucky's NCAA basketball champions were sixth (46) followed by Princeton's Ivy League football kingpins (41); Illinois' Big Ten and Rose Bowl champs (34); Stanford's Pacific Coast Conference champions (31) and Maryland.

Lost Angeles' Rams were 11th with 24 votes.

Other teams mentioned for first place included the U. S. Ryder Cup golf team which beat the English again; the Detroit Red Wings, National Hockey League pennant winners but also-rans in the Stanley Cup playoffs; the Chicago White Sox who made a gallant first half season bid in the American League and the Harlem Globetrotters, the fabulous, world travelling Negro basketball team.

Two first place votes were registered for New York District Attorney Frank Hogan and his staff for exposing the college basketball scandals.

Golf Tournament In 3-way Playoff

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—(P)—The Los Angeles Open golf tournament went into a three-way playoff Tuesday with Dutch Harrison pitting his long experience against a couple of graduates of the youth and enthusiasm school.

Jack Burke Jr. and Tommy Bolt, who together probably have not played as many tournament rounds as Harrison, won their diplomats by finishing with 289s, five over par, to join the Dutchman in the top bracket at the finish of the regulation 72 holes Monday.

The site of the University of Florida's basketball game, Florida Gymnasium, accommodates 7,300 spectators.

Of the 277 players who participated in National League games in 1951, 231 took part in 10 or more games.

'Horse of the Year' To Be Named Now

COLUMBUS, Jan. 8.—(P)—The Ohio Harness Horse of 1951 will be named at the annual meeting of District One (Ohio) of the U. S. Trotting Association, which opened here Tuesday.

Plaques will be awarded at the two-day session to William N. Doc McMillin of London, winner of 98 dash victories, and T. Wayne Smart of Delaware, top money winner in Ohio for 1951.

McKinley, Kirk of Washington Court House is seeking the office of district director, to be elected at the meeting. Judge G. W. Ritzenour of Piketon is the incumbent, and seeks reelection.

Copches Meet Again

ATLANTA (P)—Baylor and Georgia Tech have never met on the gridiron but their coaches have. These two teams will play in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day for the first time. However, Jack- et's coach Bobby Dodd and the Bear's mentor, George Sauer, will face each other for the second time. Dodd's Tech squad defeated Kansas, then coached by Sauer, 20-14, in the Orange bowl game of 1948.

Of the 277 players who participated in National League games in 1951, 231 took part in 10 or more games.

College Prexies De-emphasis Plan too Drastic for Coaches

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—(P)—The nation's colleges apparently aren't ready to bite off the strong de-emphasis diet recommended by a special committee of college presidents.

National Collegiate Athletic Association officials, gathered here for their annual convention, were plainly stunned at the extent of the presidents' program which calls for abolishment of bowl games, athletic scholarships and out-of-season practices.

Coaches were sharply critical and skeptical.

All seemed agreed on one point: There's no hope of the presidents pushing through their program at this year's NCAA convention and many doubted it ever could be put into effect.

"We plan to talk to representatives of the presidents' group

WALTHAM, Mass.—(P)—Bobby Griffin, Brandeis University football and basketball star, is seeing baskets and goalposts in his dreams. Recently, he played a basketball game, hopped a plane the next day to play football with the Brandeis grid squad in a Florida contest, then returned in time for a basketball game—all within a week's time.

1951 Wacky Business Year

Many Regulations Led to Jitters

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The year 1951 was a wonderfully wacky year. Businesswise, most folks will scarcely miss it.

Because 1951 was the year you and your government did one or more of these things:

You started the year with scare buying that drove prices up and ended it with scare saving that gave manufacturers and merchants ulcers.

In January you rushed out to buy sheets you didn't need—and you could have bought them cheaper if you had waited till you did need them. You bought a new refrigerator or TV set in a panic lest they disappear from the stores—and you could have got them later at bargain prices.

Your government froze prices—and the cost of living kept on rising. And little by little your government raised the ceilings. The latest thing it's done is to take price controls off canned fried worms—says that even if their price rises it won't affect the cost of living much.

AT THE SAME time your government set price ceilings on a lot of items that your neighbor, the merchant, is trying awfully hard to get rid of—at much less than ceiling prices.

Every so often, officials shouted about the danger of coming shortages which made you rush out and buy—and next day other officials warned you about inflation to come and urged you not to buy, but to save instead.

Believing in shortages to come, your neighbors, the merchant and the factory owners, rushed out and stocked up with goods and raw materials.

Then they spent anxious months wondering how they'd ever get out from under the load of those unsold inventories.

Controls were slapped on essential raw materials—and later there were complaints that defense production wasn't proceeding as fast as planned, while civilian goods makers were laying off workers right and left.

It was the year that wholesale commodity prices, in general, started to fall after general—and retail prices, in general, continued to rise.

And it was the year in which the penny bought nothing to speak of—and became so much in demand that the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board urged the kiddies to turn in their piggy banks for the good of the country.

"Little David", perhaps the largest gun ever built, was a 36-inch siege mortar designed by the U. S. Army to help break through Germany's Siegfried Line in World War II.

FINAL touches are put on the gown of Nina "Honeybear" Warren as the California governor's daughter prepares to ride on the special March of Dimes float in Pasadena's Rose Tournament parade. Miss Warren, who recently recovered from polio, is an active figure in the fight against infantile paralysis. (International Soundphoto)

Negro GI Unburied In 5-week Dispute

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 8.—The case of a Negro soldier killed in Korea, whose body has lain in a Phoenix mortuary five weeks awaiting clearance for a burial site, appears no nearer solution.

The question of whether to abolish regulations that have prevented his interment in a veterans plot at Greenwood Memorial Park is entirely in the hands of the cemetery's board of trustees.

Franklin G. Hannah, board chairman said it would be at least a "few days" before he could summon the group.

"I may call a meeting some time this week if I can get the members together," he said. "But it is very difficult as one works on the railroad."

He said he thought all six trustees should be present.

The unburied soldier is Pfc. Thomas C. Reed, 19, who died in front-line fighting June 3. His body was returned to a local mortuary Nov. 28 and has been held there since.

George E. Reed, the boy's father, asked that his son be buried in the veterans plot at the cemetery.

The cemetery is owned by Arizona Lodge No. 2, Free and Accepted Masons.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
S L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

F E N B B D H M S D A D I G V J B H F M G
D O F V M D A E H M G J D H J D V V M S D Q N B

Weight Limits Cut For Ohio Trucks

COLUMBUS, Jan. 8.—The state highway director has cut the weight a truck may carry over Ohio roads connecting with the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Painesville and Painesville.

Director T. J. Kauer said he acted to prevent further heavy damage to overloaded roads that might cause a breakdown in the flow of traffic.

All loads on the following roads ton.

have been cut 25 per cent, effective at midnight Tuesday:

Route 90 from Pennsylvania line to Route 224 at Poland; Route 341 from Pennsylvania line to Route 170, and Route 170 from Route 14 in Unity to Route 90 in Petersburg.

Finley Named Chairman of GOP Committee

Republicans Give Endorsements to Sen. Taft and Hill

Harold Finley, assistant to the county engineer, is the new chairman of the Fayette County Republican executive committee.

The election of Finley took place Monday night at a meeting of the executive committee in the probate court room in the Court House, following the recent resignation of Attorney Clark Wickensimer.

A letter recently was sent to Chairman Walter Sollars of the Republican county central committee by Wickensimer stating that the condition of his health made it impossible for him to continue to serve. He expressed regret that his action was necessary and stated that this in no way would interfere with his interest in Republican activities in the county.

There was a large attendance of committeemen at the meeting and Wickensimer's resignation was accepted with regret. Strong commendation of his administration as chairman since May 1950, was expressed by the committee.

Finley agreed to accept the responsibility of the chairmanship and was assured of full cooperation of the entire committee.

WHILE IN SESSION the committee officially passed endorsements of the candidacy of Attorney Winston W. Hill for the Republican nomination for state senator in this fifth-sixth Ohio district; also for U. S. Senator Robert A. Taft for the Republican nomination for president, at the same time commending his service as U. S. senator; for U. S. Senator John W. Bricker for renomination and election, and Republican incumbents in state office who will be candidates for nomination and election.

These included, Attorney General William O'Neill, Secretary of State Ted Brown, Roger Tracey, state treasurer, and Judge James Garfield Stewart of the Ohio Supreme Court.

No endorsement was made regarding the Republican nomination for governor since it is the announced committee policy at this time not to take such action where there is a contest in the party except in case of a candidate who is up for renomination and election in a state office or is a home candidate from this county for a state or district office.

For this reason no action was taken on endorsement of a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this new sixth Ohio district of which Fayette County is a part.

PLANS WERE DISCUSSED for conducting a vigorous campaign in this county following the primary election May 6. After the county central committee members are chosen at this coming election, the central committee will be organized and the county executive committee appointed. Usually the policy followed is for the executive committee in this county to include all central committeemen with the addition of a few other active Republicans.

At present the officers of the county executive committee in addition to the newly elected chairman, Harold Finley, are Richard Willis Jr., vice-chairman, and Joe White, secretary-treasurer.

Finley, who is 31, has been a member of the executive committee for the past year.

He is at present the commander of Company M, Ohio National Guard unit in this city. During World War II, he served for almost six years in the army, completing his service in two theatres of operation—the Asiatic and European—as a captain. He is married and lives on Route 70 near Washington C. H.

Finley was born and reared in the Good Hope community and served as the superintendent of the city sewage disposal plant for a year.

Association Buys Government Stock

The Columbus Production Credit Association today is wholly owned by its members—approximately 2,300 farmers in eight central Ohio counties.

The last $15,000 of stock of the association originally held the government-owned Production Credit Corp. of Louisville, was bought by the association Tuesday. When the association was organized in 1934 the government-owned stock amounted to $350,000.

The total capital stock of the association is $390,000, owned by its members. It also has accumulated reserves amounting to about $350,000. Loans made to members during 1951 totaled $5,000,000.

Seven of the eight counties—Fayette, Pickaway, Fairfield, Licking, Delaware, Union and Franklin—maintain offices. Madison, the eighth, does not have an office of its own, but is served by those in adjoining counties.

The office of the Fayette County branch is at 108 East Market Street. Baldwin Rice is the county representative of the association and is in charge of the office.

There are about 210 members of the association in Fayette County.

Services Are Held For John Morgan

Funeral services for John Morgan, 72, former resident of Washington C. H., who died in Pickaway County Saturday, were held at the Albaugh Chapel in Circleville at 2 P. M. Tuesday, followed by interment in the Circleville Cemetery.

His wife, Ada, died in 1948. A stepdaughter survives.

He was a son of John and Elizabeth Belt Morgan.

Non Supporter Is Given Prison Term

Tom Hendrix of Toledo, arrested in Bloomingburg by Sheriff Orland Hays on a non-support charge, filed in probate court, was fined $300 and costs Monday and given six months in the Cincinnati Workhouse by Probate Judge Rell G. Allen.

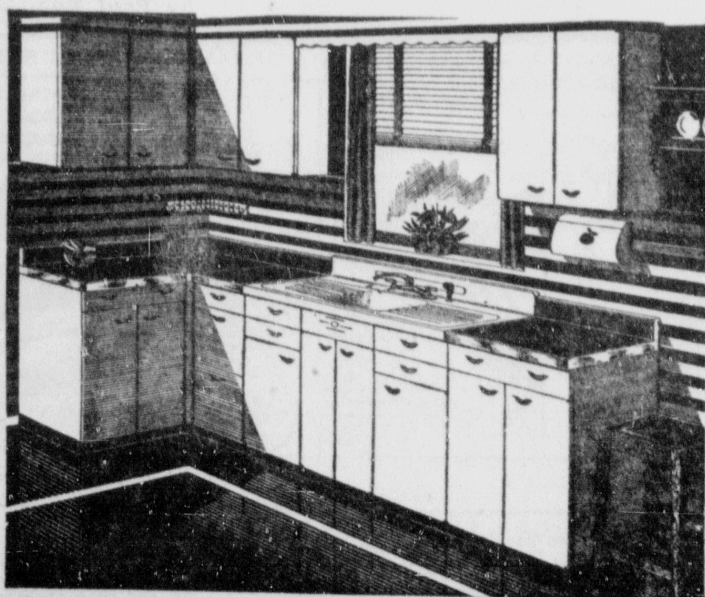

Hendrix will be taken to the workhouse within the next day or two, to begin his long term.

Minton To Seek A Second Term

Jasper Township Man Has Petitions Out

Petitions are in circulation for Ralph M. Minton for Republican nomination at the primary election May 6, for a second term as a member of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners.

Friends of Minton assert that his record as a commissioner is such as to highly recommend him for another term. He has proven very cooperative in all progressive moves for county betterment, they say, and has given much time and study to the problems which have faced the commissioners in the past few years when the inflationary trend has forced the county to operate on a closer margin, financially, than for a number of preceding years.

Ralph M. Minton

Minton is known as a quiet, unobtrusive man, always courteously willing to listen to those who have suggestions in county matters or have problems to present.

He is a native of Fayette County having been born not far from Leesburg. For the past 16 years he has successfully farmed in Jasper Township, where he has the friendly respect of a large circle of friends. He was a trustee of that township for several years.

Two candidates are to be named at the primary election by each of the two major parties, since the terms of both Minton and Homer Miller, another member of the board, end next January.

The only other candidate for the nominations, so far announced, is Robert C. Cockerill of Perry Township.

Fox Drive Planned Near South Solon For Next Saturday

Plans for a fox drive and trap shoot near South Solon next Saturday, today were just about completed by the South Solon Lions Club.

Everyone is to meet at the Community Building in the village at 9 A. M. From there, the gathering will go to the area laid out for the fox drive and spread out to form the circle.

Elmer Graham and Raymond O'Brien have been named as the captains. They will direct the drivers to their starting places.

The drive is to converge at the central point about two hours after the start so that everyone will be ready for the dinner to be served in the Community Building at noon.

The trap shoot is to be held in the afternoon, starting at 1 P. M. The double feature of fox drive and trap shoot has two main purposes—to provide some outdoor fun and, still more important, to raise some money.

Proceeds from the day afield are to be used by the Lions Club to help buy outfits for members of the South Solon volunteer fire department.

Handy Homemakers To Save Tax Stamps

Plans have been made by the Handy Homemakers 4-H Club to start saving sales tax stamps and to start on their projects for the year. The group met last week at the home of Donna Lou Rife.

Games were provided by the hostess and recreation leaders, Rosemary Leeth and Julie Payey. The next meeting will be held in the first part of February at the Olive schoolhouse, with Joyce Pitzer to be the hostess.

Advisors are Avanelle Betz and Norma Payey.

Funeral Services For Elbert Keaton

Funeral services for Elbert (Rabbit) Keaton were held Monday at 2 P. M. at the Gerstner Funeral Home, Rev. A. E. Huntington conducted the services.

Rev. Huntington read the 90th Psalm, offered prayer, read a memoir, and delivered the sermon.

Miss Carollette Brown sang "Ivory Palace" and "Beyond The Sunset". Mrs. Marian Gage was at the piano.

The floral gifts were cared for by the pallbearers, Chester Trout, Frank Ater, Jack Lucas, Emory Lucas, Charles Keaton and Kenneth Curl.

Burial was made in the family lot in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Patrolman Has Narrow Escape

Skids Cruiser 200 Feet on Highway

State Highway Patrolman M. E. Brinkles and Patrolman Jenkins of Portsmouth, narrowly escaped a serious accident Monday afternoon at the intersection of the CCC Highway and the Bloomingburg Road, a mile east of Bloomingburg.

Brinkles had started chasing a car, which had whipped by at 80 miles an hour, when a car driven by Spencer Mahan, 87, of Bloomingburg, pulled into the highway in front of the patrol cruiser.

Brinkles skidded the cruiser nearly 200 feet to avoid crashing into the Mahan car, nearly going into the ditch in his efforts to prevent a crash. His car came to a stop just short of the Mahan automobile.

He placed a charge of reckless operation against Mahan, and asked that his driver's license be revoked.

Judge Robert L. Brubaker fined Mahan $5 and costs and revoked his driver's license at the Tuesday morning session of court.

Police arrested Harry Mowery, driving a semi-trailer truck at 50 miles an hour on Columbus Avenue, and required $50 bond for his appearance in municipal court.

Engineer, Sheriff Circulate Petitions

Sheriff Orland Hays and County Engineer Charles Wagner are circulating their petitions to have their names entered in the May 6 primary.

Both are Republicans and both are seeking nominations so that they can run for reelection.

Sheriff Hays is serving his second four-year term in office. Wagner was elected in 1950 to finish out the unexpired term of Robert E. Willis. He was left the only candidate in the race when Charles Ferguson was disqualified as a candidate.

The deadline for submitting signed petitions is Feb. 6.

FUNERAL PLANS

WILMINGTON—Requiem High Mass will be held at 9:30 A. M. Wednesday at St. Columbkille Catholic Church, for James E. Murphy, 79, who died Sunday night.

Lions Bowling Tournery Set

The Washington C. H. Lions Club Board of Directors voted at a meeting Monday night to sponsor a Lions Club invitational bowling tournament at Bowland Sunday, Feb. 17 and Feb. 24.

All Lions clubs in the state are invited to enter teams.

Members of the service organization also discussed the Rose Day, which will be held March 29. Roses will be sold on advance orders and on the streets for the benefit of the youth welfare fund.

The board meeting was held in Richard Rankin's office.
